Athletes wishing to move up into older divisions must have permission from their coaches and be approved by the tournament director.

Referee Meeting: 10:15 AM

Competition Start Time: 11:00 AM.

After the bow in, there will be an explanation of the rules and the procedures for the competition. There will also be a break between the ne-waza and tachi-waza for a short demonstration of kodomo no kata which will be done at the Sask Winter Games.

Order of competition: U12, U10, U8 and U14 ne-waza, U10 and U12 tachi-waza. (attempts will be made to get all competitors 4-5 matches in each group)

Registration fees: $15.00 for each category.

*Draw Format for ne-waza**:

- For U8 divisions, these will be exhibition matches to allow coaches and competitors to be on the mat at the same time to learn the ne-waza tournament system. These matches will be 1 minute and 30 seconds in length straight time with no scoring. All competitors will receive a medal.
- For U10 divisions, Draws will be made for the divisions based on entries. A round robin pool system will be used where each entrant will compete against the other pool members. Smaller pools may do a double round robin to get each competitor more matches. These matches will be 2 minutes in length straight time with no scoring. All competitors will receive a medal.
- For U12 divisions, Draws will be made for the divisions based on entries. A round robin pool system will be used where each entrant will compete against the other pool members. Smaller pools may do a double round robin to get each competitor more matches. These matches will be 2 minutes in length straight time with no scoring. All competitors will receive a medal.
- For U14 divisions, Draws will be made for the divisions based on entries. A round robin pool system will be used where each entrant will compete against the other pool members. Smaller pools may do a double round robin to get each competitor more matches. These matches will be 2 minutes in length straight time with no scoring. All competitors will receive a medal.
