Qualifying Period

The qualifying period to earn points shall be one calendar year prior to the event being selected for.

Selections

All selections will be made by the Selection Committee. The first consideration will be athletes having met the basic criteria and the second consideration will be the athlete's placement on the points total. The Selection Committee has the right to consider other factors and may add or remove an athlete based on their performance, commitment and potential.

Funding

The budget will determine the amount of funding available to be provided to each athlete. The available funding will be distributed based on the points level achieved by each athlete. Athletes who are selected but no funding is available may be approved to attend and pay the full athlete cost.

Appeals Process

An appeal regarding team selection may be filed in accordance with the Judo Saskatchewan appeal process.
